

AEROSPACE ENGINEERING & SUPPORT, INC.

VISION and MISSION STATEMENT

AES provides specialized services in fabrication, manufacturing, electronics, and plating for global military and commercial applications. We will strive to become the preferred supplier by continually improving our processes, providing top quality products and outstanding service to meet our customer's requirements and to develop profitable customer relationships for future business.

SUPPORTING OBJECTIVES

Management Commitment

- Routinely seek efficient and effective ways to improve the Quality Management System.
- Provide opportunities and training to help employees develop their potential and improve their performance while providing a pleasant environment.

Customer Satisfaction

- Continually improve our delivery of product to our customers through quality, reliability, technology and scheduling.
- Effectively communicate with our customers to ensure that their contractual needs are met.
- Provide customers a professional service that maintains integrity, quality and traceability.

Employee Commitment

- The responsibility of each employee is to build quality into every product and to commit to on-time delivery.
- To work as a team to ensure customer satisfaction with continual improvement, while maintaining company goals and personal growth objectives.